Between Christmas and New Year is a weird time of year, the dates have merged into one, calories don't matter, and no one really knows what's happening! So if you fancy escaping the in-laws for a few hours or need some quiet time away from loud children, join us for the next Newark-on-Foot community walk.

it's a free walk, a chance to have a natter, a wander and compare the comedy socks we all got for presents

If you want to wear a Santa or Christmas hat, feel free, its not mandatory

Time: Meet at 1:00pm (a few minutes early is ideal)

Meeting Point: Steps outside the town hall (fronting the market square)

This isn't a tour. It's not a lecture. It's not a promotion. Just a bunch of folks having a nice Sunday walk on a rough route, a chance to have a natter, a catch up.

It's a friendly, informal walk with good people who care about Newark and want to connect, chat, and enjoy the town together.

Only 3 Rules:

- Be kind
- Use common sense
- No politics

Whether you're chatty or quiet, local or new, young or old, walking solo or with friends, you're welcome. Bring anyone along!

We'll wander, we'll natter, and maybe share a few stories about the places we pass, if you know any. But mostly, we'll just enjoy being outside in our beautiful town.

If the weather's grim, we'll postpone — updates will be posted on the event page.

Dogs VERY welcome 😊

Let's keep building something special — a walking group that reflects the best of Newark: inclusive, curious, connected, and proud.

Hope to see you there!
